Health Smart Virginia Sample Lesson Plan

Grade 7 Sample Lesson Plan: Stepping-Up

SOLs
- Identify alternatives to gang-related behaviors and acts of violence.
- Create strategies to promote awareness of consequences associated with gang involvement.

Objectives/Goals
- Students will identify alternatives to gang-related behaviors and acts of violence.
- Students will describe the negative consequences of gang involvement.
- Students will demonstrate interpersonal communication refusal skills to resist joining a gang.

Materials
- Board Game Scenarios [Print & cut scenarios for every 4 students]
- Game Board [Print one board game for every 4 students]
- Stepping-Up Board Game Reflection-Handout
- Communication Styles-Handout
- Practice Scenario #1-Handout
- Practice Scenario #2-Handout
- Refusal Skill Steps: “I” SAY NO-Poster
- Refusal Tips-Poster
- Refusal Observer Checklist

Rationale:
In this unit students will explore the meaning of gangs and characteristics. They will discover alternatives to joining gangs. Students will play a board game that highlights positive decision making and alternatives to gang affiliation. Students will explore the different styles of communication (passive, aggressive and assertive). They will learn the refusal steps, “I SAY NO” and practice in a role play around resisting gang membership.

Gangs and community violence is a complex issue. Some students might not have a choice but to join a gang due to their neighborhood, older siblings and parental factors. It is important to look at risk factors and protective factors that can help keep children off the streets.
Background Reading:
- https://virginiarules.org/virginia-rules/gangs
- https://pullias.usc.edu/blog/10-things-didnt-know-gangs/

Procedure

Step 1 Class Discussion On The Meaning Of Gangs (10 mins)
Describe traits and/or characteristics of gangs.

Ex. Identity, family, community, respect, support, protection

What are alternatives to joining gangs where a person could fulfill community, respect, identity, family and support? Ex. Sports, Community Programs and Community Service, Youth Groups, Clubs.

Teacher Considerations:
Avoid having students name specific gangs

Step 2 Board Game: Stepping Up (20 mins)
1. Students will work in groups of 4
   a. Each group will need a printed board game
   b. Board game scenarios printed and cut
   c. Player marker (small piece of different colored construction paper)

Board Game Rules:
To Start The Game:
The player whose first initial that is closest to the letter “z” will go first and then the group will rotate clockwise.

The first player will pick up a scenario card and move their game piece forward or backward based on the specific scenario on the game board. The player will read the scenario out loud so the entire group can hear the scenario. If the player receives a back card and goes back to the start they will stay on start until their next turn.

The first player to the finish wins. If the scenario cards run out before the game is over, have the first player shuffle the scenario cards and reuse them.

Step 3 Board Game Reflection, Stepping-Up Board Game Reflection (15 mins)
1. Students will complete the, Stepping-Up Board Game Reflection
Step 4 Class Discussion (5 mins)

Prompt:
What are the negative consequences of joining a gang?
What are healthy alternatives instead of joining a gang?

Step 5 Interpersonal Communication Assertive (10 mins)
1. Discuss the importance of self-expression and highlight assertive behavior characteristics.
2. Read through the, Communication Style Handout

Step 6 Interpersonal Communication “Refusal” Skill Steps (10 mins)
1. Introduce the skill steps of “Refusal” I-SAY NO
2. Discuss the importance of each step of “I-SAY NO”.
   - “I”-Statement
   - S=State a Reason
   - A=Assertive Voice
   - Y=You are in Control
   - N=“No” Statement is Clear and Direct
   - O=Options
   - Make an excuse
   - Be funny
   - Use flattery
   - Get Mean
   - My Own Offer: Healthy Alternative
   - Leave the Situation
   - Get Help
4. Discuss the different refusal options. Give example of each.

Step 7 Refusal Practice (5 mins)
1. Teacher and student will role play Practice scenario #1-handout

   Optional: Print out the handouts for the skill cues of refusal, “I SAY NO”. There are 5 handouts to cut out. Choose 5 students in the audience to come up to the front of the classroom to participate in the refusal practice. When they hear their skill cue, they will raise the handout up in the air. Option to laminate the handouts.

2. Students will Practice Scenario #1-handout

Step 8 Semi-Written Refusal “I SAY NO” (10 mins)
1. Display Refusal Tips Poster on the projector
2. Print out Practice Scenario #2-handout
3. Students will write in their own refusal response using the “I SAY No” checklist.
Step 9 Class Role Play Practice (10 mins)
1. Go over, Health Ed Role Play Guidelines
2. After the students have written their refusal dialogues, the teacher will check them to make sure they are appropriate and that they align with the “I SAY NO Checklist. After teacher has checked the dialogues, allow students to partner up to practice their refusal dialogues with a partner. They will also practice their partner's refusal dialogue. When the students are done practicing both dialogues, the partners will choose the best dialogue. This is the dialogue they will perform for the class.

Step 10 Class Performance of Refusal Dialogues (30 mins)
1. Print out Refusal Observer Checklist- for all students in classroom as to have them assess each group.
2. Go over Audience Role Play Guidelines
   Option: Choose 5 students to participate in holding up the, Refusal Skill Cue-handouts.
3. Assign each group a number #1-17
4. Call each group # up to perform the refusal.
5. Students will use the, Refusal Observer Checklist

Modified from the Streetwise to Sex-Wise 2nd Ed. Brown and Taverner
Practice Scenario #1:

Your cousin who is a few years older than you invites you to a party where you know there will be older gang members there.

Cousin: “Wanna go to that kickback this Saturday night with all the homies?”
Me: “No, I have a soccer game the next day.”
Cousin: “Come on…let’s just drop by for a little while. I don’t want to go alone.”
Me: “I have to wake up early for my game.”
Cousin: “Ok, you are going to miss out.”
Me: “I am good. I need to start focusing on my game.”
Practice Scenario #2:
You and your friend are walking home from school and are approached by two older gangs members in your neighborhood. You noticed they have expensive cars and nice things that you have always wanted. You remember that you and your friend have made a pact not to join the local gang.

Older members: “We’ve seen you two around here. You should come ________ with us after school.”

You: “No, we can’t.

Older members: “What are you two afraid of?”

You: “I have to __________________________

______________________________.”

Older members: ______________________________

You: “______________________________”
Refusal
"I SAY NO"

I=Statement
S=State a Reason
A=Assertive voice
Y=You are in control

The "NO" statement is clear and direct

O=Options
What else can you do: leave the situation, get help, offer a healthy alternative

REFUSAL TIPS:

- Make an Excuse
- Be Funny
- Flattery
- Get Mean
- My Own Offer: Healthy Alternative
- Leave the Situation
- Get Help
- Start with: "I Don't ..."

BE CONFIDENT, LOOK THEM STRAIGHT IN THE EYE, MAKE IT BRIEF

Role play: ____________ Name:

Directions:
You and your partner will be assigned a number #1-17. When your number is called you will perform your refusal role play for the class. Make sure to identify the person who is pressuring vs. refusing to the audience. The audience will be grading the person “refusing”. Put a check mark inside the box as you hear the skill steps. Leave the box blank if you did not hear or see the skill step.
